

How the Free Non-Executive Director/Chair works:

For hiring companies:

1. If not already provided please either email us a candidate profile or URL to this information on your website.
2. We will then promote your requirements as follows:
 - Post your opportunity on our Current Vacancies page.
 - Post your opportunity to our LinkedIn network of over 22,000 1st level industry contacts.
 - Email your opportunity to our database of experienced senior industry executives looking for such positions, both those currently holding NED/Chair positions and those with the skill set to take on such a role.
3. All enquiries will be directed to you, please supply relevant email address.
4. Please advise us once the position is filled so we can remove it from our website in order that you don't get continued enquiries.

Should your capacity to manage the recruitment process benefit from some additional input George James Ltd can provide support services including candidate management, psychometric profiling, interviewing, reference taking etc. Please contact us for further information.

For people interested in such opportunities:

Simply let us know you are interested and ideally send us a CV or Profile we can hold confidentially. We will then email you whenever we are asked to assist a company hire a NED/Chair. Initially as this is a free service we will not be able to pre-screen opportunities and hence if they are not of interest please just delete the email. If the uptake of the service results in us sending out regular updates of new vacancies we will invest further to minimise alerts that are not relevant.

If you would like any further information on the above please contact us.
